Multiple Infection Waves in the SEIR Model

- Hypothesis: I expected several infection waves because the exposed stage slows down the spread.
- Verdict: Partially Supported
- Key Numbers
  - First peak: Day 61.7
  - Peak infected: 317.6 people
  - 4 peaks detected

- Lesson Learned
  - Birth continuously added new susceptible people, developed multiple waves together with exposed stage.